

Please keep off the backs of the individual states rights. This great country was formed by individual states and big government should step back and let us have the peace and quiet from teleprompters in New Jersey.